FIRE DAMAGES CARLTON HOTEL

American Actor Burned When Part of Big London Hostelry Was Destroyed Yesterday Morning

MANY OF GUESTS NARROWLY ESCAPE

Flames Confined to One End and to Upper Floors of Building—Victim Trapped in Bathroom

LONDON, Aug. 9.—Fire destroyed a portion of the Carlton hotel tonight and resulted in the death of one person. After the flames had been quenched, a charred body was found on the top floor. It was identified as that of Jameson Lee Finney, an American actor.

The Carlton is one of London's most fashionable resorts, and many Americans were among its guests. Practically all had narrow escapes.

The fire burned for two and a half hours but was confined mainly to that end of the hotel adjoining His Majesty's theatre, and the fifth and sixth floors, which were gutted. Part of the roof also was destroyed. The managers say the hotel, which was well drenched, is not badly damaged, and will resume business immediately. The blaze started in an elevator shaft, from the fusing of an electric wire.

The alarm was sounded at 7 o'clock, while most of the guests were dressing for dinner. They poured out into the streets, leaving all their baggage. Men, in their nightclothes, with overcoats on them, and women half dressed, their hair hanging down their backs, fled from the building.

Firemen arrived quickly and rescued a number of servants who were shrieking from upper windows. They also carried out two invalid guests.

The general alarm sent out said: "The Carlton Hotel is well alight, and lives are supposed to be in danger."

This brought to the scene all fire companies within a radius of three miles.

The upper floor, where most of the damage was done, was given mostly to servants' quarters. Comparatively few of the guests lost their baggage. The salvage corps removed trunks and bags and piled them in the streets.

Thousands of persons stood in and motor cars filled the adjoining streets and watched the fire. The Haymarket theatre, across the street from the hotel, was compelled to cancel its performance on account of the fire. His Majesty's theatre is closed.

Many Americans who had been staying at the Carlton sailed home on the Olympic today, but incoming steamers had brought new guests.

None of the hotel staff is missing.

Mr. Finney's body was found in the bathroom adjoining his room on the fifth floor of the annex. The charred features were unrecognizable.

Apparently he had gone into the bathroom to bathe before the fire, and was asphyxiated. The body was removed to the morgue late tonight.

This death was the only one resulting from the fire.

John Greenway, of Bisbee, Arizona, took two women and a boy down a fire escape, while R. W. Daniels, of Philadelphia, slid down a rope to the street from the third floor with an English friend who was visiting him.

RAILWAYS AND FOREST FIRES

Provincial Government Frames Regulations to Safeguard B. C. Timber—Govern Both Construction and Operation

In connection with the energetic and systematic campaign against the devastating forest fire which this season has been organized and carried forward with so much success, the responsible officials of the Provincial Government, Mr. W. R. Ross, considerable attention has been directed to the principal origin causes. The policy of the government is to stimulate public interest in forest protection and conservation by means of a campaign directed at the prevention of fires rather than their suppression. The carelessness of campers, hunters, prospectors, and others in dropping cigar or cigarette ends or still smoking matches and cigarettes, particularly in neglect of sufficient precautions in making and the extinction of camp fires, together with careless use of camp fires, already have been fully dealt with, and a very few of the established roads—the Shuswap and Okanagan and the Victoria and Sidney are pertinent examples—are under exclusively provincial jurisdiction, together with the Canadian Northern Pacific, the first important long transport enterprise to be carried out exclusively under provincial control, and with respect to these the Government at Victoria is losing no time in framing such regulations as will reduce as nearly as possible to the minimum the danger to standing timber through communicated fires.

Representing the president, John Barrett, director general of the Pan-American Union, will deliver an address.

The centennial ceremonies will commence at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon with a large military parade, which will traverse the main streets of the city. The opening of the centennial will be participated in both by the president and Governor West, of this state.

Formal exercises at the stadium will bring the daylight programme to a protechnical display, this to a great extent, being of a historical nature.

Count Togo at Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 9.—Baltimore and Philadelphia vied with each other in giving Admiral Count Togo an enthusiastic welcome today. After five hours of public receptions, tours through steel works and foundries, a cruise of Chesapeake Bay, and an automobile trip through the city of Baltimore, the Japanese naval commander arrived in this city on a private car at 6 o'clock tonight. The admiral and his suite in two automobiles were escorted to their hotel by a squad of mounted policemen, passing a large "Welcome, Togo" sign on the city hall. Tonight Admiral Togo rested, his programme calling for an evening's respite for the first time in several days. Tomorrow he will see some of the Philadelphia industries, visiting the city hall and plants along the river front. He also will inspect the navy yard.

AMENDMENTS FOR TREATIES

Conventions Providing for Arbitration Not Likely to Pass Through U. S. Senate Without Change

OBJECTION MADE TO COMMISSION

Provision Relating to Dependencies of Great Britain is Also Obnoxious to Some of Senators

WASHINGTON, August 9.—Friends of the British and French arbitration treaties in the Senate have reached the conclusion that it will be necessary to get amendments in order to get favorable action upon them. This conclusion is the result of decisions by the Senate committee on foreign relations.

After two prolonged sittings the committee adjourned late today to meet again on Saturday. Both meetings were devoted to the consideration of the documents on their merits, the first in company with Secretary Knox, and the second by the members alone. No effort was made to have the treaties reported, and it became extremely doubtful to some of the friends of the administration whether such effort would be wise at present.

Special objection was made at both sittings to the provision submitting questions of difference to the joint commission of inquiry. Fault was also found with the provision in the French treaty authorizing ratification by that government in accordance with the procedure required by the laws of France, and with the condition in the British treaty that matters affecting dependencies of Great Britain shall be submitted to the governments of such dependencies.

BISHOP PERRIN'S NEW DIOCESE

Leader of Anglican Church in Province is Appointed to Newly Created Episcopate at Wilsden

Universal regrets will be mingled with personal congratulations to the revered and popular Bishop of Columbia when the news that the King has been graciously pleased to create the Right Reverend Wilcox Perrin, D.D., D.C.L., the first Bishop of Wilsden, D.D., D.C.L., that the news has been an open secret since Bishop Perrin's departure from the diocese. The news will lessen the interest in the official announcement of his preference, but it cannot lessen the general sense of loss, of personal as well as communal loss, to the people of the province, occasioned by the departure of one of the most forceful personalities as well as the actual and titular leader of the Anglican Church in British Columbia.

The appointment of Bishop Perrin to the newly created Suffragan Episcopate of London may be taken at once as a compliment to the activities and virility of the church in British Columbia and a glowing tribute to the work and worth of the man who for 13 years has been an unfailing source of inspiration and strength to the religious life of this great province. As Bishop of Wilsden, Dr. Perrin will be called upon to direct and administer a see of such magnitude and complexity that might well appeal a man of less vigor and resource.

The Wilsden diocese will comprise practically the whole of the north of London, and is to include the important rural deaneries of Hampstead, Hornsey and St. Pancras—as well as that of Wilsden. This means that Bishop Perrin will administer a diocese which has a population of over 550,000 souls, a very large proportion of whom belongs to the industrial classes of the "capital of the world." Wilsden itself is the home of nearly a quarter of a million persons, who will be quick to appreciate the presence of so dominating and picturesque a personality as that possessed by the first Bishop of the new diocese. The bishopric will, on the other hand, include the wealthy and aristocratic municipality of Hampstead, one of the most beautiful residential districts in the whole of London.

Bishop Perrin is at present unable to say whether his home will be situated in Hampstead or Wilsden, but as he is one of those men who is master of his environment rather than one who is affected by it, the location of his residence will not be a matter of great interest until his countless friends in the province wish to exchange news and views with one who has such an interest in British Columbia as well as in the memory of the man and his work.

ENDS HIS LIFE

Edward Owen Murphy of Vancouver Commits Suicide Because of Business Worries

VANCOUVER, B. C., Aug. 9.—Edward Owen Murphy, a shipbuilder who came to Vancouver last December, shot himself this evening shortly before seven o'clock in a broker's office on Granville street.

The deceased, who was 45 years of age, was a native of Liverpool, England, and was engaged in the business of a shipbuilder. His physician had strongly advised a sea voyage, and he was ready to go, but at the last moment decided to remain in Vancouver.

He was married, and Mrs. Murphy is at present in the city.

LIKE RING BATTLE

Los Angeles Grand Jury's Criticism of Warfare Waged by Newspaper Publishers

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Aug. 9.—The newspaper controversy which has been waged bitterly here for the past month, brought forth from the grand jury today a criticism in which the warring morning journals are advised to stop a course which makes Los Angeles appear as "the referee of a continuous ring battle."

The structures are made in the course of a report to the superior court exonerating Edward T. Earl, publisher of the Tribune and the Express, of any culpability in reference to the allegations made by other newspaper publishers that he sought to influence the city council in the fixing of telephone rates.

The investigation of the telephone rate matter followed the indictment of Mr. Earl on the charge of having published the contents of an agram that passed between the editor and the manager of an opposition paper.

Thousands of people of all shades of political color are going to St. Hyacinthe on Sunday next in expectation of witnessing a battle royal of the campaign.

Opposition for Mr. Oliver

WINNIPEG, Aug. 9.—Among the surprises in the election campaign today was the announcement from former Premier A. C. Rutherford of Alberta, that he would oppose Hon. Frank Oliver, Minister of the Interior, for re-election in the Edmonton constituency. Mr. Rutherford lost the premiership of Alberta over the Alberta and Great Western Railway Company, the promotion of which was bitterly opposed by Mr. Oliver and his newspaper.

SEA TRAGEDY IS REPORTED

Captain of Tug Bermuda Tells of Seeing Man Thrown from Tramp Steamer Near Active Pass

HAS NOTIFIED THE AUTHORITIES

TACOMA, Wash., Aug. 9.—Captain E. McMullen of the British tug Bermuda, which arrived here today from Texada Island, B.C., reported that at 6 o'clock on Tuesday evening, in the vicinity of Active Pass, he saw a man thrown overboard from a tramp steamer flying a foreign flag, which was passing out to sea from Victoria or Vancouver.

"I was looking at the vessel through the binoculars," said Captain McMullen, "when I observed a commotion on the forward deck, and from the struggling mass of sailors a man was hoisted over the bulwarks with a rope around his neck. He was lowered to within a few feet of the water, and then the rope broke, or was cut."

The Canadian authorities have been notified of the circumstances.

KIDNAPPED BY BROTHER

Theory Now Held by Chicago Police in Regard to Missing Marengo Boy

CHICAGO, Aug. 9.—Inspector Revere, who has been conducting the search for six-year-old Angelo Marengo, believed to have been kidnapped, today granted Philip Marengo, the child's 20-year-old brother, twenty-four hours in which to produce the missing boy on pain of being locked up as the kidnapper.

The police believe now that the kidnapping of little Angelo was the result of a family disagreement, and that the elder brother knows who has the boy and where he is hidden.

Philip is said to have been the only one who knew of his father's savings of a little over one thousand dollars. He had been employed for a number of years in a printing establishment, and his father allowed him only one dollar a week of his salary, the result of which has been continued quarreling. This and the changed attitude of Mr. and Mrs. Marengo toward the police resulted in the son being cross-examined today.

The mother of the missing child, who until today has done what she could to help the police investigation, today locked the door upon the detectives and refused to permit them to enter her house.

TRIAL OF STRENGTH

View Taken by Railroad Officials of Threat to Strike Made by Shopmen in West

CHICAGO, Aug. 9.—Railroad officials today declared that the strike which threatens western railroads is being planned as a demonstration of strength by the railroad department of the American Federation of Labor.

The railroad department of the American Federation of Labor was organized four years ago. It is said to have a membership of nearly 700,000, comprising the shopmen and telegraphers of eighteen railroad systems.

The action of the Harriman lines in refusing a wage increase, it is said, will be followed by the heads of other railroads. The informal conferences between western railroad officials on the subject of the strike are being continued.

CROP CONDITION IS UNFAVORABLE

Report of U. S. Department of Agriculture Shows Great Damage Done by July Heat and Drought

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—A tremendous decline in the condition of the crops generally throughout the country, and traceable to drought and intense heat, occurred during last month, as indicated by official figures and estimates made today in the monthly crop report of the department of agriculture.

The report today in the worst, as to general crop conditions, that the department has issued for any single month since 1901. The area most seriously affected extends from New York and Pennsylvania westward to the Rocky Mountains, embracing all the great corn, wheat and hay producing states in the country.

Conditions in the Pacific Northwest are regarded as excellent, although during July territory suffered from a brief but exceedingly hot period.

While the crops in many instances probably will be short in the yield per acre, yet in total production they will not be small, as shown by the following estimates of the yields of standard crops:

Corn, 2,620,221,000 bushels; winter wheat, 1,514,000 bushels; spring wheat, 209,546,000 bushels; oats, 817,700 bushels; potatoes, 349,898,000 bushels; tobacco, 860,588,000 pounds, and hay, 490,129,000 tons.

DEATH OF MR. DUKE

General Manager of B. C. Permanent Passes Away Suddenly After Operation

BRITISH STRIKE IS EXTENDING

Dock Workers Tie Up Traffic and Have Many Collisions With Police—Hard to Preserve Order

RAILWAYS ALSO ARE BLOCKADED

New Order from Labor Leader Calls Out 100,000 Men—Bread and Meat Likely to be Scarce

LONDON, Aug. 9.—The board of trade and other conferences up to a late hour tonight had failed to arrange terms with the striking dock workers, and the trouble is likely to extend to tomorrow. In the Thames 150 vessels are tied up, and every market is disorganised.

The police, mounted and on foot, are being employed in large numbers, but have much difficulty in keeping order. They made many charges with clubs tonight on disorderly gatherings. There were rumors tonight that the railway trainmen and the country tramway men would join the strike tomorrow. Home Secretary Churchill says he will take no further action on the strike beyond authorizing the police to preserve order.

Tie-Up at Liverpool

LIVERPOOL, Aug. 9.—The railroad strike here has assumed alarming proportions. Not only are freight trains tied up, but the passenger service is threatened. The dockers refuse to handle goods from the railways, and hundreds of tons of fish, fruit and other perishable freight are becoming damaged. Official quotations of foodstuffs were practically suspended on the produce exchange today.

Southampton, Aug. 9.—The steamer Ansonia today sailed for Quebec one day behind her schedule. She left three hundred tons of cargo which the dockers refused to handle.

LONDON, Aug. 9.—The Combined Millers' association, of London, telegraphed tonight to the home secretary asking for military protection against the striking dock-hands. A bread famine within the next three days is certain if present conditions prevail.

Today 30,000 carters quit work and thousands more planned to join the idle ones before night. All attempts to move wagons loaded with London's supplies of meat, fruit and provisions were stopped by the strikers, in many instances only after a fight with the police. There has been much overrunning of vans and a destruction of supplies, women joining the men in preventing a replenishing of the markets, where prices were bearing figures that are prohibitive to all except the well-to-do.

The fish porters have joined the strike and there was no one to unload fish. No effort was made to unload the fish trawlers that arrived in the Thames this morning.

The wholesale prices of chilled beef have advanced seven to ten cents a pound since last Friday.

The manager of one of the largest houses importing American beef says, unless the strike is settled tomorrow there will be the greatest beef famine this country has ever seen.

Tons of American pears, Tasmanian apples and French fruits are rotting in their crates and Covent Garden is almost without fruit.

Practically no business was done on the corn exchange, as the sellers were unable to guarantee their deliveries.

At a meeting of the strikers at Tower hall this afternoon, Benjamin Tillett, secretary of the Dock, Wharf, Riverside, and General Workers' Union of Great Britain, announced that orders had been issued calling out every man in the port of London. The new order will increase the number of strikers to 100,000.

Referring to Home Secretary Churchill's statement in the House of Commons yesterday regarding the calling out of troops to suppress rioting, Tillett declared that if the government used soldiers, the dockmen would kill the government as effectively as they intended to paralyze trade.

Fifty Years Ago Today

(From The Colonist of August 10, 1861.)

The large building at the corner of Fort Street and Government, demolished the other day, was built in 1818 as the company's head office and the gubernatorial residence. Gov. Hinchard resided within its four walls for a time, and when succeeded by Gov. Douglas, he gave up the residence to the company. The building is going rapidly forward and in brief space of time we expect to see substantial frame and brick buildings rising in their places. We grieve to part with the landmarks, but the march of progress must not be checked on that account.

The chain gang yesterday exhumed the remains of a human body from the middle of Johnson street, opposite the graveyard. The body was about six feet long, and had from appearance, one who pays for the services of the gang and three policemen.

The search for portions of the wreck of the Carlton continued yesterday at Shoal Point. The schooner Thames was towed towards evening the boiler was raised, and the Carlton was discovered.

The funeral of the late William Allen, son of Mr. Allen, will take place today at 3 o'clock p. m. at St. James' church.

SETTING ASIDE LANDS FOR PRE-EMPTORS

Aggregate Area of $200,000 Acres is Placed Under Reserve—One-third for University Endowment

Today's issue of the British Columbia Gazette is expected to contain a long series of official notices of the lands department setting aside under reserve certain areas of land, aggregating 200,000 acres, surveys of which were carried out last season, and which—in accordance with the adopted policy of the government—are, now being set aside, one-third for university endowment, one-third for pre-emptors, and one-third for future sale by public auction. The lands dealt with in the current notice are principally in the Stuart river, Fraser river and Fraser lake sections of Cariboo and Lillooet. A large area of land adjacent to the town of Fort Steele is also being set aside for sanitary purposes—as a garbage dumping ground for Fort Steele and vicinity.

Previous waste of forest fires, the government of the day in British Columbia makes no exceptions of railway or other potential operations while equally insisting upon the rational observance of every fire prohibition by campers, loggers, prospectors or settlers. These regulations, however, forward governing the construction and operation of railways in British Columbia are in their text as follows:

"1. During construction, the right-of-way of every railway shall be cleared of all trees, logs, brush and other perishable matter. Logs specially reserved to be made into ties, timbers or cordwood must be removed within a reasonable time. All other inflammable material must be piled as near the centre of the right-of-way as possible without interfering with the construction of the roadbed, and burned under permit from the provincial fire warden. Before issuing any such permit the warden must be sure that ample precautions have been taken to render such burnings safe.

"2. Trees and brush must not be thrown upon adjacent lands, but must be piled and burned on the right-of-way as provided above. Trees unavoidably felled outside of the right-of-way must be cut up, removed to right-of-way, and there disposed of.

"3. In addition to clearing its right-of-way, as provided above, every railway company shall remove, when so ordered, from land alongside its right-of-way, any dead timber or accumulation of debris that endangers the safety of adjoining timber lands, and shall pile and burn such dead timber and debris under direction and permit from the district fire warden.

"4. The right-of-way of every railway company must at all times be kept free of dead timber, brush, dry grass and other inflammable matter.

"5. In especially dangerous places, when so directed by the Minister of Lands, the railway company will be required to cut and clear fireguards on lands adjacent to their right of way. Whenever fires shall occur in proximity to the right-of-way, railway companies and their contractors, upon request of the Minister of Railways, shall place the laborers in their employ at the disposal of any official duly authorized by the Minister.

"6. Sufficient provision of buckets, mattocks, shovels and axes, for fighting bush fires must be made by every company at suitable places along its line.

"Cutting Timber on Crown Lands.

"6. Debris, caused by the cutting of any timber by a railway company, under special permit of the Minister of Lands, on lands adjacent to the Crown adjacent to the right-of-way, must at once be limbed off and piled, and dealt with subsequently by burning or otherwise, in accordance with the orders of the Minister of Lands. Due notice must be given to the Minister of Lands before any such cutting is done in any locality.

Safety Appliances.

"7. Every locomotive engine having an extension smoke box shall be equipped with netting mesh, the mesh to be not larger than 2 1/2 x 2 1/2 per inch No. 10 Birmingham wire gauge, and to be placed in the smoke box so as to extend completely over the aperture through which the smoke ascends—the opening of the said mesh not to exceed a quarter of an inch and one-sixty fourth of an inch to the square inch. On every engine equipped with a diamond stack the mesh to be not more than 3 x 3 per inch of No. 10 Birmingham wire gauge, and to be placed across the top of the stack so as to completely cover the same, the opening of the said mesh not to exceed three-sixteenths of an inch and one sixty-fourth of an inch to the square inch.

"8. The openings at the back of the ash pans on every locomotive engine must be covered with heavy sheet iron dampers or with screen netting dampers 2 1/2 x 2 1/2 per inch of No. 10 Birmingham wire gauge, such dampers to be fastened either by a heavy spring or a split cotter and pin.

"9. Overflow pipes from the injectors must be put into the front and back parts of the ash pans and used from April to October inclusive.

"10. During the months from April to October inclusive, wire screens must be fixed to the windows of all smoking compartments of railway carriages.

Inspection.

"11. Every railway company shall provide inspectors at terminals, where its locomotive engines are housed and repaired, and shall cause these inspectors to examine at least once a week the fire-protective appliances used on all engines running into the said terminals.

"12. Record of such inspection shall be kept in a special book at each terminal, and the book shall show the condition of the fire-protective appliances and the date of inspection.

"13. At such terminals the railway company shall at all reasonable times allow any fire warden appointed by the government of British Columbia to inspect the fire protective appliances on any engine, and to examine the record of inspection kept by the company in accordance with the preceding regulation.

Fails to Get Enforcement of Order That Woman Must Don Bloomers and Join Chain Gang

JOILA, Kas., Aug. 9.—B. D. Smeltzer, judge of the municipal court here, was defeated in his efforts to enforce his judgment today that Mrs. Ella Reese, a city prisoner, convicted of a vicious offense, should don bloomers and join the men members of the chain gang in working on the streets.

There were three reasons for this. First, the judge was unable to find a pair of bloomers in the town; second, his order was defied and annulled by City Commissioner G. C. Glynn; and third, the people here apparently had no sympathy with the drastic sentence inflicted upon the woman.

Unable to find the sort of attire ordered by Judge Smeltzer, the jailer today delivered Mrs. Reese to the foreman of the street department dressed in her usual clothing.

When Commissioner Glynn heard of the jailer's action he ordered the foreman to return her to jail at once, which he did.

"I have all due respect for the court," said the commissioner, "but the court is not running the street department. I will not permit a woman prisoner to do such work. It is a disgrace even to suggest such a thing."

"I am willing to obey the order of the court," said Mrs. Reese, after she was returned to jail. "If he says so I'll put on bloomers and go to work on the streets, but I believe I would be the last woman that would ever do so, as well as the first. I believe the people would not stand such a thing."

When Judge Smeltzer learned that his orders had not been obeyed, he said emphatically that Mrs. Reese should go to work.

"If she don't go to work she will stay in jail until she concludes to obey the court," he said tonight.

MAY COMPROMISE

Messrs. La Follette and Underwood Striving to Reach Agreement on Wool Duty

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—There was much activity today in the interest of an agreement between the two houses of congress on the provisions of the wool bill, resulting in an understanding that Messrs. La Follette and Underwood, the sponsors of the bill, would make an early effort to reach an adjustment. The close of the day found the two legislators still apart on essential details, but nearer than before.

When they were in conference on Tuesday, Senator La Follette gave Mr. Underwood to understand that he could not possibly get his followers to agree to a rate of less than 30 per cent on raw wool, while Mr. Underwood told him that it would be necessary to some 25 per cent. If not to 25, to insure the acceptance of the conference report by the House. The senate representative undertook to make a canvass, but with little hope of success. He has been assured of the support of only eight of the insurgent Republicans of the senate for 30 per cent. He could afford to lose only two votes, and his investigation was not reassuring.

Mr. Underwood was more confident than his fellow conferees, leading to the conclusion that he might go farther than he yet had manifested a willingness to do. His optimism was due to a change in the sentiment of the House. The Democrats of the House have been thoroughly canvassed in the last two days to determine whether they would support an increase of the rates in the Underwood bill, in order to effect a compromise with the insurgent-Democrat strength of the senate. It was asserted today by prominent Democrats that Mr. Underwood had found an unexpected strength in favor of meeting the La Follette forces on the best possible compromise basis, preferably something below thirty per cent. on raw wool. Mr. Underwood said today that he expected the wool situation would solve itself tomorrow, when the full committee probably would meet.

"We will either agree or definitely disagree tomorrow," was his assertion. He added that if an agreement was reached, two or three days might be necessary to put the conference agreement into the form of a bill to be presented to the two houses.

INSIST ON INQUIRY

Republicans in House Allege That Committee is Trying to Shelve Controller Bay Affair

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—The proposal of the house interior department expenditures committee to delay until fall further investigation of the controller-Bay affair in Alaska, involving the alleged "Dick to Dick" letter, will be opposed bitterly by Republican members of the house. They assert that the committee is trying to drop the matter after allowing unwarranted reflections to be cast upon the president and the administration.

Two resolutions looking to immediate disposition of the matter were introduced by Republicans today, one in the house by Representative Humphrey of Washington, and another in the committee itself by Representative Burke of South Dakota, one of the three Republican members. No action was taken on either resolution.

Mr. Humphrey's resolution asked for the discharge of the committee, from consideration of the matter, and the appointment of a special committee to conduct the inquiry.

The Burke resolution provided that Humphrey have a motion for special order and that the hearing continue from day to day until a thorough and full and complete inquiry has been made of the whole subject.

Mr. Burke endeavored to have this considered in open session, but Chairman Graham kept him out of order, and by a vote of four Democrats and four Republicans the committee went into executive session.

MR. PERKINS SAFE

Statement as to Campaign Contributions is Offered by Counsel and Matter is Dropped

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—George W. Perkins, director of the United States Steel Corporation, and former partner of J. P. Morgan and Company, was not ordered before the bar of the house today by the house committee of inquiry into the affairs of the steel corporation. Neither will he be.

After a heated executive session of the committee in which was discussed the refusal of Mr. Perkins to answer a suggestive line of questioning regarding contributions of corporations to campaign funds, the committee reached an understanding whereby all threats were waived.

At the outset the committee was induced by Representative Littleton to reconsider the entire case, in which the chair was sustained in ordering that the witness answer questions as to his personal campaign contributions.

After this was done, a plan was agreed upon as to just what questions regarding the campaign contributions should be asked, and it was understood that Richard Lindabury, counsel for the steel corporation, would declare that he knew of one contribution of $10,000 made by the corporation to a campaign fund in 1904.

This he afterwards stated before the committee, and thereupon the political phase of the inquiry apparently was dropped. When the executive session of the committee was ended, Mr. Perkins was called for by Chairman Stanley.

POPE PIUS' CONDITION

His Holiness Resting Better and Suffering Less Pain—Eighth Anniversary Quietly Celebrated

ROME, Aug. 9.—Pope Pius early tonight enjoyed several hours' rest in the large room on the third floor of the vatican, to which he was moved today from his small bedchamber on the fourth floor. The change seems to have revived the Pope somewhat and cheered his spirits. When Doctors Fedeli and Marchisiani visited his holiness in the early evening his temperature was 101, but at midnight, after he had perspired profusely, it fell below 100. The pains in the knee also diminished, and he was able to obtain some refreshing sleep.

The physicians now will try to restore fully the strength of the Pope, fearing that otherwise there may be fresh complications of the throat and bronchial trouble.

Celebration today of the eighth anniversary of the pope's coronation was quiet because of his illness. A special mass was said in the Sistine chapel.

Cardinal Merry Del Val, the papal secretary of state, celebrated the mass, surrounded by all the cardinals living here, except Rampolla, who is ill in Switzerland. All the prelates inquired anxiously as to the health of the pope, but received indefinite answers, as no one, not even Cardinal Merry Del Val, nor Monsignor Biletti, the major domo of the vatican, has been permitted to enter the sick room.

Immediately after the mass Cardinal Merry Del Val left for Monte Mario, his summer residence. This was taken by some persons to mean that his holiness is not considered desperately ill.

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 9.—Kansas, Missouri and Oklahoma sizzled today in a heat wave which began yesterday. In Kansas City the mercury reached 103 at 4:30 p. m. with high humidity. B. A. The temperature recorded yesterday: Joplin, Mo., 98; Wichita, Kans., 96;

NO INTOLERANCE IN DISTRACTED IRELAND

Authorities Say that Under Home Rule Protestant Minority Will Not be Exposed to Persecution

DUBLIN, Aug. 9.—Among other alleged objections to Home Rule, one hears a good deal of "the fear that the Protestant minority would be exposed to persecution." Hand in hand with that goes that other terror, "that the industrial and wealthy north may suffer injustice in matters of taxation." In his book, "The Legacy of Past Years," just published, Lord Dunsany faces both these objections squarely and gives the following answer:

"Every time of history contradicts the assumption of religious or secular intolerance on the part of the Catholic majority. But let that pass. I believe the fears for the majority to be groundless; but be that as it may, they can be effectually dispelled. The minority cannot be guaranteed exceptional treatment founded on religious, racial or class ascendancy, and they ought to be ashamed to demand it; but they can be guaranteed equality and fair play, and for more than that they have no right to ask."

A book to be published by the Irish Press Agency under the title "Religious Intolerance Under Home Rule" gives, in the form of letters edited by Mr. Jeremiah MacVeagh, M.P., the opinions of some leading Irish Protestants about this matter, and very effectively shows that Lord Dunsany has good reason for his statement.

Mr. William Abraham, an Irish Congregationalist, and for over a quarter of a century a Nationalist member for the harbor division of Dublin, writes:

A Positive Asset

"My personal experience speaks for itself. Living in the city of Limerick, where my co-religionists are in an insignificant minority, I was elected year after year by my Catholic fellow-citizens as chairman of the board of guardians, and afterwards as member of parliament for West Limerick. In 1910, at the request of my parliamentary colleagues, I stood as a candidate for the Harbor Division of the Irish metropolis. My opponent was a Catholic Nationalist, but the question of religion was never raised, and I was elected by a majority of 263. The fact is that, when a Protestant candidate in Ireland is straight on the political issue, his Protestantism, far from being a disadvantage, is a positive asset. Religious intolerance is foreign to the nature of Irish Catholics."

The same burden is taken up by Irish magistrates, merchants, barristers, lawyers, journalists, educationalists, ministers, farmers, all Protestants, and all are ready to disown the arguments which the Tories so generously put forth on their behalf.

Mr. Richard M. Barrington, J.P., one of the largest employers of agricultural labor in county Wicklow, declares: "I have no fear of religious intolerance under Home Rule, and have every confidence in the good sense of my Catholic neighbors and fellow-countrymen."

Sir Charles Brett, a prominent Belfast solicitor, Professor Crofton, professor of Pathology in the National University of Ireland, Dr. Charles Forsyth, J.P., a medical practitioner in Coleraine for over forty years; Mr. William Gibson, J.P., a magistrate and farmer of county Down, send the same message, practically word for word.

Here is the testimony of Professor W. F. Barrett, J.P., F.R.S.:

No Intolerance

"During the years I have lived in Dublin I have mixed with all classes and creeds and all sorts and conditions of Irishmen, have traveled and lectured in various parts of the country, and have never experienced any intolerance on the part of Roman Catholics. Nowhere have I met with a more cordial welcome and greater hospitality than in Cork and in the southwest of Ireland, where the Protestants are in a small minority, and where they languish at the fears of their co-religionists in Ulster."

Professor Barrett goes so far as to say that any "intolerance" that exists has a decidedly Orange hue—it springs from the Protestants themselves. "It is, however," he concludes, "amazing to find so many excellent Nonconformists throughout Ireland still wedded to a belief in the bogies and snobishness of the Tory creed."

Mr. J. Aaron Bryce, M.P., begins his letter by stating that he "may claim to know something of Ireland," for his "father lived more than half his life there," and "his grandfather and uncle were Presbyterian ministers in Ulster." "As a member of the Dublin commission I had occasion to visit many districts of the west and northwest, where the population is mainly Catholic. I do not believe that under Home Rule there would be the slightest danger of intolerance on the part of Catholics towards Protestants in the Catholic parts of Ireland. So far from Home Rule meaning Home rule, my belief is that, under Home Rule, the influence of the clergy in political matters will continue to decline, and on that very ground many of the clergy are believed to be in a swarm or hostile towards Home Rule."

In all close on a hundred leading Irish Protestants have communicated to Mr. MacVeagh their views on the dangers of "Home Rule" as viewed by the "religious minority in Ireland" whom they represent. "You are entirely at liberty to quote me," writes the Earl of Aberdeen, "as declaring to you that after years of continuous residence in Ireland, watching affairs and meeting people of every class and creed, I am profoundly impressed as to the baseness of alarm about the consequences of Home Rule."

"On Home Rule for Ireland I repeat and emphasize the opinion of my former messages, especially regarding the religious intolerance. Numerous Protestant ministers in Roman Catholic parts of Ireland support me in this view."

PRESS COMMENT

Canadian Dependence and Independence

United States commentators on Canada, even those of them who presumably ought to have more abundant knowledge, fall into many and serious mistakes both of fact and opinion. Writing editorially in the August number of his magazine on Canadian dependence on the United States, Mr. Benjamin B. Hampton remarks that the future of Canada is unenriched by an interesting field for private speculation. "The country," he proceeds, "has such tremendous possibilities and is so plainly hindered from their realization by the dependence on Great Britain that the safest of all bets is that the existing conditions cannot endure. The wonder is that some big Canadian does not summon up the courage to declare what he must know to be the fact." Rather the wonder is that the editor of an important periodical, dealing largely with political and social affairs, should apparently be obsessed by an error common indeed in the United States, but which ought not to be shared by well-equipped critics.

How often must it be explained to our friends south of the line that Canada is not in any sense dependent on Great Britain, and that it is not in leading strings it has long outgrown? Canadians indeed flatter themselves that they possess a constitution far more representative of democratic principle and conferring far ampler powers of self government than does the constitution of the United States. The parliament of Canada is as supreme as congress, and there is no power to veto measures passed by a congressional majority of different political complexion. Were Canada a republic tomorrow, and Mr. Hampton says it would have no friends anywhere so sincere and cordial as the people of the United States, Canadians would know no extension of their internal sphere of government, while they would lose that imperial interest which, another United States observer, quoted in Saturday's World, was convinced Mr. Hampton had been struck by the fact, recently, he says, brought to light by an American consul in Canada, that in the last fifteen years the astonishing sum of $417,000,000 of American money has been invested in Canadian enterprises.

This pregnant fact, he remarks, reveals again the origin and nerve centre of the Canadian revival. Evidently he is unaware that British public investments in Canada amount to more than five times that of American investments. It is probably the case that more money proportionately from the United States has been placed in industrial undertakings, but it has been the mother country that supplied the means of opening up the Dominion, covering it with railroads, building up its populous centres and supplying the foundation for its commercial and industrial expansion. American money has not been the origin, fact, he remarks, of the Canadian revival. American capitalists have simply been swift to take advantage of the opportunities offered by the enterprise of the Canadian people. That is all—Toronto World.

Mon. Frank Oliver's Position

There was one man who was probably extremely thankful for the sudden dissolution of parliament. That man was Hon. Frank Oliver, minister of the interior. It will be remembered that some months ago now charges were made that Mr. Oliver made a change in the selection of the land grant of a certain corporation very much to the corporation's advantage, and that about the same time some $50,000 was mysteriously added to Mr. Oliver's bank account.

The matter came up in the house of commons and a committee was appointed to investigate the matter thoroughly, being empowered to call what witnesses it desired. The government members of this committee throughout showed a great disinclination to get down to work on the matter, and the house finally adjourned for two months without any progress being made. Then, when the house reassembled, these government supporters still were unprepared to proceed. In fact, one of them who had gone over to the mother country as a member of the Canadian parliamentary delegation to the coronation found the air of London so much more to his taste than that of Ottawa that he remained there as long as he decently could, arriving home practically only in time for the dissolution. As a result the charges against Mr. Oliver have not been investigated. Apparently the government preferred that Mr. Oliver should remain under a cloud rather than that the fact should be brought to light. Is not this a most serious situation and one that reflects anything but credit on both the government and on Mr. Oliver. It serves to illustrate the extreme contempt with which Mr. Oliver and the government of which he is a member regard the deencies of public life. If Mr. Oliver is innocent it was due him and the country that the fact should be established, while if he is not innocent he should be driven from public life as one unfit to occupy a place therein. Mr. Oliver, however, with this cloud hanging over him is brazenly appealing for re-election and is even leading the government forces in the three prairie provinces. In other words, he is acting as one of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's right hand men in the present campaign. Is this at all elevating, or is it at all right?—Nelson Daily News.

Election Is Called.

Sir Wilfrid has decided to take an appeal to the people with the west anything but properly represented. In doing so he seeks to put the responsibility upon the opposition, which is manifestly unfair. Sir Wilfrid as leader of the government is in control of the house and the dissolution must be charged up to him.

Mr. Borden expressed a readiness to assist in getting a redistribution bill through the house, but would not consent to let the reciprocity pact go through without the will of the people being tested.

The election now, within three years since the last election, and on the old distribution of seats, leaves at least about one half of the west not represented in the new parliament. Had Sir Wilfrid wished to give them the franchise he had but to say so and the opposition would have assisted in seeing the bill through the house. The government, however, seemed determined to have an appeal on the old arrangements of seats and accordingly advantage is taken of the situation created to get to the electorate without redistribution. This giving an unfair representation to the detriment of the west.—Prince Rupert Journal.

Where Mr. Borden Stands

What are the general lines of Mr. Borden's public policy? The outstanding feature as regards the present contest is his absolute opposition to reciprocity. He told the Grain Growers that he would not support the Gledhill-Knox trade pact if they made him Prime Minister of Canada tomorrow. The principle of the national policy is still, in his view, essential to the growth and prosperity of Canada. He advocates a moderate system of protection, such as will insure the manufacture of Canadian raw material in Canadian factories rather than that Canada should permit the more highly organized industries of the republic to draw these raw materials across the line, leaving Canadian centres bare of manufacturing enterprises. More important still is Mr. Borden's apprehension that, with the interlocking of the fiscal systems of Canada and the United States, this country will come under the sway of the mergers and the combines which, with all its trust-busting efforts, the United States congress has not been able to control. It is well known that where Mr. Borden stands with respect to Imperial questions, such as co-operation with Great Britain in naval defence. He has also declared that he would maintain the British preference and further encourage imports from Great Britain by legislation or through a preferential trading arrangement whenever the British people endorse that policy. How important to the people of British Columbia is the extension of British preference in reducing the cost of living has not been adequately dealt with, but the householders know what economies can be effected by the purchase of English goods. With the opening of the Panama canal it will be to the great interest of the people of this province that the British preference be extended to many of the common necessities of life, but not, however, to the prejudice of Canadian industry.—New Westminster Columbian.

Duped and Disfranchised.

Reciprocity was one of several demands made upon Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Mr. Borden by Western grain growers. Moreover, the reciprocity treaty gives only a part of the reciprocity which the grain growers ordered. One of the other measures was the Grain Bill relating to the inspection, classification and shipping of wheat. Mr. R. C. Henderson, president of the Manitoba Grain Growers' organization, and Mr. Mackenzie, the secretary, left Winnipeg late in July for Ottawa to promote this measure, which had then passed certain stages. They arrived the day that Parliament had been dissolved and the bill had been killed. No one had told them what was about to happen, and they had high hopes that they would see this legislation through. It is reported that they have gone home highly indignant against the ministry than Sir Wilfrid heard last summer. The anger of the Manitoba farmers is not mitigated by the fact that they will be allowed to elect only about half the number of members to which they are entitled by the population.—Vancouver News-Advertiser.

The Conservative Leader

Mr. R. L. Borden, the Conservative leader, now enters his fifth election contest as a parliamentary candidate for the Commons and his third as the leader of the Conservative party in the House of Commons, more influential in the public life of the country, and more strongly entrenched in the regard of that section of the electorate who appreciate high-mindedness, frankness and courage in a politician, while his personal prestige has recently been greatly enhanced by his straightforward declarations on matters of Canadian and Imperial policy. Indeed, his consistent course in parliament has been in marked contrast to the shifty ways of the Liberal leaders, and his aggressive fight against the reciprocity pact, both in and out of parliament, has, as it has been said, stimulated and invigorated his party in the western provinces. Nowhere does this obligation apply more fittingly than to British Columbia.—New Westminster Columbian.

Marjorie Hurst, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Hurst, was united in the holy Plummer and Rideout, real estate and custom brokers. The Reverend Wm. Stevenson, of the Emmanuel Baptist church, officiated at the ceremony. Immediately after the ceremony the invited guests sat down to a very dainty buffet supper. The drawing room was very tastefully decorated with pink and white roses, red and white carnations intermingled with anthurus, this being the handiwork of Mrs. G. Oliver and Miss Jean Macdonald. The Misses P.

Macdonald, F. Johnson, P. Gowen and Mrs.
Renfrew acted as attendants to the guests at tea. The bride, who wore a Copeland fitted costume, was given away by her father, Mr. H. Hurst, and was ably assisted by Miss Edna Hurst, sister of the bride, and Miss Nina Rideout, sister of the groom, who acted as bridesmaids. The groom's gift to the bride was a ring set with diamonds and emeralds; to the bride-maids, gold band bracelets and to the groomsmen, pearl stick pins. The bride and groom were the recipients of many beautiful gifts. The groom was supported by

NEWS OF THE CITY

The Police Court—There was practically no session of the police court yesterday morning. The only case on the blotter was that of an inebriate, who had been let out on bail a few days ago, and he was not present to answer to his name.

Confirmation Class—The Lord Bishop of Columbia has consented to hold a confirmation at St. Barnabas church on Sunday, October 8th. The first class of preparation will be held at the rectory today at 8 p. m. All candidates are asked to be present. The class will last one hour.

Ambulance Association—The first class for drivers will be held at the police court this evening, at 8 p. m. Dr. Houghton will be the lecturer for this course. Mr. H. G. King, Shelbourne street, is the class secretary. The association hopes that those interested will attend at the hour mentioned.

Greetings to University League—A telegram received at the office of the Vancouver Island Development League, from the Pacific Highway association of Portland, announced that the annual convention of the association now in session send greetings and best wishes for the success of the league. The league is interested in, and extends to the league sincere thanks for the splendid co-operation which it has rendered the highway movement.

Tired of South Africa—There was rather a heavy mail from South Africa received at the office of the Vancouver Island Development League yesterday. The majority of the letters were from young Englishmen who claim to be tired of that country and are seeking information of the possibilities of this island with the intention of leaving here if satisfied with the view.

Official Tour of Railways Messrs. James Geddie and Edward G. Lalonde, assistant chief operating officers of the board of railway commissioners, who are now making an official tour of western railways, have just concluded a visit to Vancouver where they made a detailed inspection of the E. & N. railway. Today will be devoted to a similar inspection of the Great Northern lines in the lower Fraser valley and tonight they will embark for Prince Rupert to undertake a similar mission. It is their intention to inspect the 112 coast section of the Grand Trunk Pacific now in operation. On their return the officers will begin a similar inspection of the Canadian Pacific railway, which will require visits to many large western centres. Their powers are very wide and give them authority to report on railway terminals, depot facilities, motive power and train equipment, as well as freight and passenger service. Both visitors are veteran railway men with wide experience. They will report to the railway commission, which will meet at Vancouver on August 31. Among the cases which it is said will be dealt with will be an application of the C. P. R. to expropriate certain farm lands at Comoxium required for the company's proposed terminals there and which the owners refused to sell to the company at the terms offered.

APPOINTMENTS TO TEACHING STAFF

School Board Selects New Instructors for High School and Domestic Science Work.

Two appointments to the staff of the new high school were made by the school board at the regular monthly meeting of that body held last evening. Mr. Spouse, member of the teaching staff of the George Jay school, will be the high school science teacher and Mr. J. Lawson, a English teacher, each at a salary of $110 per month. Both gentlemen hold excellent references and the school trustees are confident that in them the board will possess teachers of great merit.

Miss Juniper and Miss L. Preston were also appointed to the domestic science staff, the former, who has had wide experience in that class of work in England and the east, being given a salary of $1,000 a year, the latter, also highly recommended, $750. The appointment of a manual training instructor was left over until a future meeting.

Tenders for the erection of the new manual training centre at the George Jay school were received from Messrs. Farrit Bros., $3938; Lunny Bros., $3585; Messrs. Knott & Jones, $3572. The contract will be awarded to the last named firm. The new structure will be of brick, one storey in height and of a design harmonizing with the school building.

Tenders for the supply of coal for the city schools were received from Mr. J. Kingham and the Vancouver Island Coal company, each at a figure of $8.40 per ton. The contract will be awarded to the latter concern.

Trustee Riddell, chairman of the building and grounds committee, reported that the tenders for the new high school will be called for in about two weeks' time. Repairs to existing school buildings are well under way and will be completed in time for the opening of the new fall term.

The offer of the Hinton Electric company of "fixturing" domestic electric buildings at a cost of $295 was referred to the committee having in hand the arrangements for the work.

Accounts to the amount of $1902 were passed and ordered paid. The resignation of Mr. G. A. Cunningham, a member of the teaching staff, was accepted with regret. Mr. Cunningham will accept a position on the staff of the Nanaimo schools.

PRINCE RUPERT'S AFFAIRS

Mayor Manson's Conference with the Government Relative to Agreement with G. T. F.

The series of protracted conferences between His Worship Mayor Manson, M.P.P. of Prince Rupert and Premier McBride and the Provincial Executive, relative to the desired endorsement by the province of the agreement recently arrived at between Prince Rupert city and the G. T. F. railway company, ended yesterday, when the mayor and the ministers were for some time closeted together. The essential feature of the request made to the province is that considerable concessions be made in the matter of land grants from the Crown's retained quarter-interest in the Prince Rupert townsite, for educational, park, esplanade and other public purposes.

Inasmuch as the municipal authorities are faced by unique and weighty problems in their task of rapidly developing a modern city out of the wilderness, it is expected that exceptional consideration may be shown. Mayor Manson went on to Seattle yesterday, on business in connection with the hydro-electric problems of Prince Rupert, and will return here Saturday, when it is expected that the decision reached by the executive in respect to his application will be announced.

B. C. VOTERS' LISTS

Ottawa's Action Merely Means Re-printing of Provincial Lists

The recent announcement from Ottawa that voters' lists for British Columbia for use in the forthcoming federal election are being prepared at the federal capital is now interpreted as meaning nothing more than that, for the necessary uses of the campaign, under the Dominion elections law, passed last year, are being reprinted in the government printing bureau. This conclusion, too, is strengthened, if not wholly confirmed, by a telegram just received by the provincial secretary from Ottawa. The federal government, under the Dominion elections law, possesses authority to revise the voters' list, under the supervision of special commissioners, with somewhat arbitrary powers, when no revision has taken place during a year preceding the election at which such lists are directed to be used. As this condition does not apply in this province in the present case, it is understood that the mere re-printing of the lately revised provincial lists is the sum total of the federal action in regard thereto.

"BABE" THERRIAU DEAD

Popular Lacrosseist Who Played for Victoria Passes Away in Seattle

"Babe" Therriault, whom few of the younger native Victorians do not know, and who about two years ago left here to take up an important position in Seattle with his uncle, died at that city yesterday morning after a long illness. "Babe" is the only name by which he was referred to in this city and of his many friends there are few who really do not know his correct Christian name. His death will be a personal loss to a large number of Victorians, who always knew him as a quiet, cheerful and kind-hearted young man.

The late young man was a star at the national game of lacrosse and was one of the fastest goal tenders that has played with the Victoria team. In 1904 and 1905 he starred with his team, after having faithfully worked his way to the responsible post from the Centrais, with whom he played in 1902, 1903 and part of 1904 for the city championship. He was educated in the public schools here. For several years he had lived with his mother at the corner of Johnson and Quadra streets, whence they removed to Seattle, after Mr. Therriault took up his new position there.

"Babe" was a young man and was taken ill with appendicitis several weeks ago. Since then he has been lingering, but nothing serious was expected. His death comes as a surprise to his friends, who last heard of him as recovering.

It is likely that interment will be made in this city. Beside his mother, he leaves one brother, Mr. Frederick Therriault of this city. Deceased resided at First avenue, west, Queen Anne Hill, Seattle.

BOTTLE MESSAGE IS WASHED ASHORE

Finder on Irish Coast Sends to Colonist Massive Drifted in Atlantic by Coronation Contingent

Dropped from the Empress of Ireland by the Victoria artillerymen and three of their French-Canadian fellow-gunners of Point Levis on the way to the Coronation, a bottle message has been washed ashore on the coast of Ireland and sent by the finder to the Colonist. The message reads:

"Confier a la Garde de Dieu, Empress of Ireland steamer. Souvenir du contingent de l'artillerie de Victoria, 5, en destination, couronne le 25 juin, 1911. Sergt-Major Odilon Bernier, Sergt. Laval Bernier, Sergt. Onesime Dallais, 6th C. A. Pavis; Sergt. F. Harparr, Gunner A. R. Nex, Gr. E. L. MacNaughton, 5th C. G. A., Victoria, B. C. Lette en pleine ocean le 7 juin a 7 hrs du soir, Longitude 20 degres, latitude 55 degres, mercedi, 7 juin. Ecrit par L. Bernier, Sergt. 6th C. A. Levis. Si toute fois retrouve par quelqu'un, prie d'envoyer 'Le Snottidien', Levis, Canada, P.Q. ou Le Journal, 'Le Soleil', Quebec, Canada, P.Q.

"Please if ever this bottle is found by anybody, please advise the newspaper 'Le Snottidien', Levis, or Le Soleil, Quebec, or the Colonist, Victoria, B.C., Canada."

The finder of this message was Mr. H. J. Cross, of Knockree Farm, Ardfeis, County Kerry, Ireland, who forwarded it to the Colonist under date of July 29th, stating that the bottle containing the message was found off the coast nearby on July 20th. The letter was found in Tralee Bay, off Banna Strand, longitude 10, latitude 51.

REASONS WHY THEY OPPOSE RECIPROCITY

Statement Issued by Eighteen of Toronto's Leading Liberals—"Canadian Nationality is Threatened"

Following is the statement issued last February by eighteen of the leading Liberals of Toronto, in which they declared their opposition to reciprocity:

"We oppose ratification of the proposed reciprocity agreement with the United States of America."

"1. Because in the year 1897 the parliament of Canada repealed the legislation then existing relating to reciprocity and since such repeal neither the people of Canada nor their parliament have entrusted the government with any duty or authority to negotiate with respect to any agreement on the subject."

"2. Because the present unexamined prospect of Canada is the result of a policy which has been pursued in the development of her trade and of her natural resources. Because this has involved the expenditure of hundreds of millions of dollars upon railways, canals, steamships and other means of transportation between the east and the west and west and east, and the obligation to incur further great expenditures for the same purpose, and because further development along the same lines would be seriously checked by the proposed reciprocity agreement and the benefits of the expenditures referred to would be to a great extent lost."

"3. Because it is essential to the continued national unity and development of Canada that no trade relations with any country should be agreed to by Canada on any basis which would check the growth and development of trade between the various parts of the Empire; and because the proposed reciprocity agreement with Canada and the United States of America would seriously check the growth and development of this trade."

"4. Because any present benefit to any section of Canada or to any interests or individuals therein which might accrue from the proposed agreement would be more than offset by the loss and injury which would accrue to other sections and interests and individuals, and because the result to Canada as a whole would be greatly injurious."

"5. Because, as a result of the proposed agreement, the freedom of action possessed by Canada with reference to her tariffs and channels of trade would be greatly curtailed, and she would be hampered in developing her own resources in her own way and by her own people."

"6. Because, after some years of reciprocity under the proposed agreement the channels of Canada's trade would have become so changed that a termination of the agreement and a return by the United States to a protective tariff as against Canada would cause a disturbance of trade to an unparalleled extent, and because the risk of this should not be voluntarily undertaken by Canada."

"7. Because to avoid such disruption Canada would be forced to extend the scope of the agreement so as to include manufactures and other things."

"8. Because the agreement as proposed would weaken the ties which bind Canada to the Empire, and because the unrestricted reciprocity which would naturally follow would still further weaken those ties and make it more difficult to avert political union with the United States."

"9. Because the disruption in the channels of Canada's trade which was caused by the termination of the reciprocity treaty of 1854 and the subsequent establishment of a protective tariff by the United States, gave rise to a decided leaning in many minds towards annexation with the United States, and this at a time when Canada was mainly peopled by native-born Canadians and other British subjects, to whom the prospect of annexation was most unwelcome, and because Canada in a comparatively few years will have millions of newcomers, a large percentage of whom will come from foreign countries, and because if Canada should then have to choose between disruption of her channels of trade with the United States or political union with them, the preservation of Canadian autonomy and Canadian nationality would be enormously more difficult to maintain."

"10. Believing as we do that Canadian nationality is now threatened with a more serious blow than any it has hitherto met with, and that all Canadians who place the interests of Canada before those of any party or section of individuals should therefore in this crisis state their views openly and fearlessly, we, who have hitherto supported the Liberal party in Canada, subscribe to this statement."

This was signed by: Sir Edmund Walker, president of the Canadian Bank of Commerce. Sir William Mortimer Clark, K. C., former lieutenant-governor of Ontario. John L. Bialkie, president Canadian Land & Investment Co.

W. D. Matthews, grain dealer and doctor Canadian Pacific Ry.

GAME REGULATIONS FOR COMING SEASON

Sportsmen Reminded that Automatic Guns May Not be Used—Mountain Sheep to be Protected

In view of the near approach of the hunting season throughout British Columbia, for which sportsmen are already beginning to make preparations, inasmuch as September 1, by common custom has grown to be accepted as "the opening day," it may be well thus far in advance of the inauguration of the campaign against furred and feathered denizens of the wild to once again direct attention to the fact that hereafter the use of automatic guns is strictly illegal in any part or district of British Columbia. These murderous guns have only come into general use during very recent years and have been especially favored by duck-hunters, who, thus armed, have been enabled to work wholesale havoc among the water fowl. The consensus of opinion appears to be that the use of the automatic gun is essentially unsportsmanlike, and for this reason as well as for the desirable protection of the diminishing numbers of ducks and geese frequenting provincial waters, the action taken by the government will be approved by all true sportsmen—even by those who may perchance find it necessary to make changes in their arsenals. By a second order-in-council passed at the same time as that making the use of automatic guns a statutory offence, a closed season for mountain sheep was declared, during the ensuing two years, in the districts of Yale, Okanagan and Similkameen, and an additional year of immunity granted the wapiti in all parts of the mainland, as from the last proximo—the wapiti (or Great American elk) of Vancouver Island being already under special protection.

The regulation of the taking of game during the hunting season is in this province largely by order-in-council—and necessarily so, as the supply of birds in the various districts fluctuates and it is the part of wisdom to recognize scarcity of birds or the reverse in arranging when and where they may be shot—the matter of defining the open seasons throughout the province was taken into consideration at a recent meeting of the Provincial Executive, regulations for 1911-12 being adopted largely in accordance with practical reports from Game Warden Bryan-Williams and his subordinate officers. The order adopted provides chiefly for the seasons short on the mainland, as will be noted by the following decisions.

Season's Regulations
That blue and willow grouse and ptarmigan may be shot throughout that portion of the mainland not included in the Fernie, Cranbrook, Richmond, Dewdney, Delta and Chilliwack electoral districts and that portion of Kent municipality situated in the Yale electoral district, between the 1st day of September, 1911, and the 31st day of December, 1911, both days inclusive.

"That ducks, snipe and geese may be shot throughout the mainland and the islands adjacent to the mainland between the 1st day of September, 1911, and the 31st day of February, 1912, both days inclusive."

"That coast deer may be shot throughout the mainland and the islands adjacent thereto, between the 1st day of September and the 15th day of December, both days inclusive, exception being made herein of the Queen Charlotte Islands."

"That Columbian or coast deer may be shot throughout the mainland only between the 1st day of September, 1911, and the 15th day of November, both days inclusive."

"That ducks, snipe and geese may be shot throughout the mainland between the 1st day of October and the 30th day of November, both days inclusive."

These regulations it is specially noted, are not intended to apply to Kaituma Island, the Yukon game reserve in the Lillooet district, the Elk river game reserve in the East Kootenay, or the game reserve in the Port George district.

It is expected that the declaration of an open season for the several classes of game sought by sportsmen on Vancouver Island and the islands adjacent will be communicated to the public during the next few days.

Thefts From C. P. R. Cars.
WINNIPEG, Manitoba, August 9.—Seven Dominion government grain inspectors today were sentenced to terms ranging from two months to six years for thefts from freight cars in the Canadian Pacific yards. The proceeds of their robberies were valued at nearly $10,000.

Gold from Alaska.
SEATTLE, Aug. 9.—The steamship Humboldt, which arrived from Skagway yesterday, brought $150,000 worth of gold bullion from interior Alaska points. The Humboldt also brought 11,000 cases of canned salmon from southeastern Alaska canneries.

Read His Own Death Notice.
VANCOUVER, B.C., Aug. 9.—Reading in a city newspaper that he had been found dead in an hotel here, Mr. W. J. Bryant called at the undertaker's office last evening and declared that some mistake had been made, as he was "better than half a dozen dead men." After having inspected the remains said to be his, he identified them as those of John Joseph Mullen, an employee of a cartage company. Mullen had died of heart disease.

Charged with Forgery.
WINNIPEG, Aug. 9.—Fred J. Chapman, wanted by the Royal Northwest Mounted Police at Regina, for alleged forgery during the fair, was arrested last night in a south end hotel by Detectives Batho and McCutcheon. Chapman is a knight of the grip, and declares he is a representative of the Watsburg Lumber Company of Milwaukee, Wis. He made no resistance when arrested, and seemed to be in the best of spirits. He was a resident of Calgary six years ago, and well known in Alberta.

Become Reconciled.
SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 9.—S. Foster Kelly, the former Seattle banker, who figured prominently in the divorce suit of Albert Henry, a teller in Kelly's bank, against Mary Henry, with whom Kelly eloped, has affected a reconciliation with Mrs. Kelly. This became known positively today, when the divorce complaint filed by Mrs. Kelly was dismissed after she had obtained permission to change the charge from unfaithfulness to desertion. Attorneys connected with the case say that Mr. and Mrs. Kelly probably will remove from Seattle at an early date and begin life anew. They have three children, two boys and a baby girl.

Arctic Circle Excursions.
EDMONTON, Aug. 9.—Steamboat accommodation for summer excursions to the Arctic Circle will be provided by the Hudson Bay company next year. District Manager Fitch, who has just returned from a trip extending over two months in the Peace River and Athabasca districts, stated that when navigation opens next season an improved schedule will be put in force and proper connections established to the boats on the various rivers. The trip to the Arctic Circle, and back, about 3600 miles, will thereby be made easy of accomplishment. Passengers will be conveyed by steamer from Athabasca Landing to Grand Rapids, thence by passenger steamer to Fort McMurra. At this point, steamers will again be utilized and the journey continued via Lake Athabasca and tributary streams into the Mackenzie river by which the Arctic Circle is reached. Mr. Fitch estimates that the round trip from Athabasca Landing to the Land of the Midnight Sun can be made at a cost not greater than $400.

BIG PROBLEM FOR THE CIVIC HEADS

Mayor Morley Will Ask Council to Investigate Present High Cost of Living and Other Matters

Just when reciprocity is about to become a live issue between the two political parties Mayor Morley has introduced himself into the fight. At the forthcoming meeting of the city council his Worship will seek to deal a blow at the trusts and combines which, upon his opinion asserts, are responsible for the present high price of living. His Worship will ask the council to appoint "some duly qualified person or persons to investigate and report upon the present cost of food supplies and other products, more particularly the necessities of life such as milk, groceries, meat, fish, fruit, coal, cordwood and lumber, also as to the possible infringement in this connection of the Criminal Code as referring to trusts and combines."

Earl Grey's Donations.
OTTAWA, Aug. 9.—Earl Grey will leave Canada for home on Saturday. Nothing official has been announced as to the arrival of the Duke of Devonshire but it is expected to arrive in October.

Niobe Reaches Halifax.
HALIFAX, N. S., Aug. 9.—The warship Niobe arrived here at six o'clock last evening in tow of the H.M.S. C. new wall from Clark's Harbor. The passage of 140 miles was made at the rate of six knots an hour. The Niobe's pumps easily kept pace with the inflow of water. The Lady Laurier followed the cruiser to starboard, as her rudder was not in order.

For Stealing Tobacco.
STOCKTON, Cal., Aug. 9.—Juan Vargas, convicted of stealing two packages of tobacco from a grocery store, was sentenced by Judge C. W. Norton of the superior court, to two years in Folsom penitentiary. Though a paltry theft was committed from a standpoint of value, the intent to commit burglary rather than the lack of success of the accused in his undertaking prompted the sentence given.

American Squadron.
GIBRALTAR, Aug. 9.—The American practice squadron, consisting of gun battleships Iowa, Indiana and Massachusetts, sailed for Annapolis today. The squadron, under Commander R. E. Condit, of the Annapolis naval academy, and having on board the naval academy midshipmen, sailed from Annapolis on June 3 for a summer cruise to European ports covering about 7000 miles. The voyage will end on August 28th.

Games Today.

Tacoma at Victoria.

Portland at Seattle.

Spokane at Vancouver.

Tacoma, 8; Victoria, 5.

When the fans had congratulated themselves that the Islanders had "come back" and had that long overdue win well in hand yesterday afternoon, those disagreeable Tigers cut the fun off by hitting the home team for a total of six runs—fully sufficient to entirely turn the tide and put them safely in possession of the third day's honors.

It was home run day. The fans who were after extra bases weren't content with two or even three bags. They went for the clouts that count for the entire circuit. Five succeeded in getting them and they came in every instance. At moments when they were needed. This is specially true of the couple that were netted by the visitors in the seventh. That of Manager Mike was the first. When he sent the pill soaring over the center field thirty-foot fence, there were two men on the bases. Morse's single sandwiched between this and Fisher's homer made the latter good for another two, so that when the smoke cleared, all of which Victoria had been two in the lead, they found themselves almost hopelessly outdistanced.

How the Hits Came

From a casual glance at the score it might be imagined that the game was a swiftest, at any rate on the Tigers' part. That wasn't the case if the faithful seventh is left out of the reckoning. Up to then McCreezy was a mystery to the Lynch family. He had them badly puzzled. Morse's run in the fourth, which brought two across the base because "Windy" Kennedy had just singled, looked more or less accidental. It was odd, too, that the brace of homers grabbed from Pitcher Schmitz should come under much similar conditions. In the fifth inning Milburn had been given a pass when Goodman slammed the leather over the palings, and in the sixth Brennan had been donated transportation. Immediately before "Tena's" heavy sack caught the horse's square on the nose and sent it careering to the same spot.

Cut out that seventh inning and it would have been a splendid game from the viewpoint of Victoria. But then McCreezy's good humor got the better of his judgment. With one man down he walked Schmitz who looked ripe for a fan. Then Hassey drove lightly to the infield and was safe on fielders' choice. Schmitz being out off at second, Coleman hit scored the speedy "Tigers' left fielder who was right at the plate a hair's breadth before the ball. Kennedy's single, Lynch's home run, Morse's single, and Fisher's four-runner conclude the tale. They were the deciding factors of the game.

PRETTY WEDDING AT CHURCH OF OUR LORD

Nuptials of Miss A. D. W. Day and Captain L. W. S. Cockburn are Solemnized—Local Officers in Attendance.

Under the bright auspices of an August day of unclouded and brilliant sunshine the marriage of Miss Aline Dorothy Wynne Day and Captain Lestock W. S. Cockburn was solemnized at the Church of Our Lord yesterday. The church was thronged with many friends and relations, the attendance also including officers of the garrison and the Fifth Regiment, and the ceremony was performed by the Rev. Arthur de Brissac Owen, rector of New Westminster.

The bride is one of the pretty daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Day, of Derreen, Rockland avenue, and the bridegroom, Captain Cockburn, is the son of Dr. Cockburn, of Hamilton, Ont., formerly of Devonshire, England.

During the ceremony the hymns "The Voice that Breathed Over Eden" and "O Perfect Love" were sung, and while the register was being signed, Miss Gideon Hicks sang "Love's Coronation" in her well-known charming style.

The church was beautifully decorated by Miss Day, Miss Laura Irving, and the Misses Macdonald, assisted by other friends of the bride, with quantities of white chrysanthemums, blue hydrangeas, aspidistras ferns and pot palms. The bride was escorted up the aisle by her father, who subsequently gave her away.

The Bride's Dress.

The beautiful picture gown worn by Miss Day was an example of elegant simplicity, the material used being ivory silk, with wide, ruffled tulle of chiffon, embroidered in silver, with silver girdle and yoke of old Irish crochet in rose design. The train was of satin trimmed with chiffon caught with knots of orange blossom. A cluster of orange blossoms was worn surmounted by a tulle veil and the lovely young bride carried a most artistic empire bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern, with long white satin streamers, tied with tiny chiffon bows. The maid of honor was Miss Olive Day, sister of the bride, and the bridesmaids, four in number, were Miss Lily Day, cousin, Miss Paula Irving, Miss Ross Arbuthnot, and Miss Florence Gillespie. Their pale blue picture gowns of Liberty satin with over dresses of pale blue marquisette beaded in silver were most uncommon and artistic and their long white tulle veils with mob caps, trimmed with tiny rosettes of pale blue French forget-me-nots, were picturesque in the extreme. They carried rustic baskets of white sweet peas and maidenhair fern tied with pale blue tulle. Their presents from the bridegroom took the form of bouquets with the initials of the Royal Canadian Artillery in gold, with hanging pendant drops of turquoise.

Major Lindsey acted as best man, and the four ushers, Captain Gillan, R. C.A., Captain Stern, 5th Regiment, Mr. Spaulding, 5th Regiment, and Mr. Scudamore, 6th Regiment, Vancouver, looked after the seating accommodation admirably. The bridegroom's gifts to the best man and ushers were silver inflated cigarette cases.

Reception at "Derreen"

The spacious gardens and fine rooms at "Derreen," the residence of the bride's parents, lent themselves charmingly to the reception that followed the ceremony. The bride and bridegroom received on a specially built platform on one of the lawns, which was festooned with green and decorated with Shasta dahlias, while in the centre was hung a white horseshoe with "Good Luck" in silver letters. The bride's table was festooned in similar tied with white satin ribbon and the floral decorations were carried out in white sweet peas, jasmine, and maidenhair fern, and the lovely wedding cake which was much admired was made by Dame Durden.

The refreshment table, which was arranged on another lawn, was profusely decorated with blue plumbago, jasmine white sweet peas, and maidenhair fern. The drawing room decorations were beautifully carried out in yellow. The dining room and library, where the presents were displayed, were decorated in rich red and yellow nasturtiums, and the hall in pink gladiolas and begonias.

Mrs. Day wore for her daughter's wedding an elegant creation of cornflower blue brocade, with a wide, ruffled tulle of chiffon of the same shade trimmed with wide silk fringe, the sleeves and vest being of fine white lace with touches of oriental embroidery and trimmed with iridescent beads in blue and silver. Her black tulle straw hat was trimmed with a band of oriental embroidery and bunches of blue button roses and white French plumes.

The toast included the "Health of the Bride and Groom," proposed by Colonel Wadmore, D.O.C., responded to by the bridegroom, who proposed the health of the bridesmaids. This was responded to by Major Lindsey, who proposed the health of the bride's parents. This was responded to by Major C. T. Dupont, the oldest friend of the family in Victoria. After the toast, "Absent Friends" had been proposed, all joined in singing "Auld Lang Syne."

After receiving the congratulations and good wishes of their many friends, Captain and Mrs. Cockburn departed for Seattle en route for their honeymoon, which will be spent at Lake Hayden. The bride looked sweet and charming in her going-away costume of fawn rajah silk with black and white striped silk facings. With this she wore a most becoming toque of fawn straw, loosely banused with black velvet and trimmed with eight coral colored feather plumes.

"THIS AIN'T POETRY"

Do you know there's lots o' people
 Settin' round in ev'ry town,
 Chuckin' like a broody chicken,
 'Knockin' ev'ry good thing down?
 Don't you be that kind o' poultry—
 'Cause they aint no use on earth,
 You just be a booster rooster,
 Crow an' boost for all you're worth.

— BUT —

It's mighty good horse sense. Foolish "hot-air" boosting never gets a man or a town anything. At the same time it is a pretty poor policy to put a peck measure over your candle and then feel badly because people don't admire your light. Victoria is in for a big move this fall, a move that has been due her for a long time. The more people who hear about her meanwhile the better. Tell the truth, but tell it good and loud. Modesty is a punk policy—in business.

We have re-edited our entire lists and catalogued them with a view to spotting the investments booked for a quick turnover with good profits this fall. It will be worth your while to look them over.

BIG STEAMERS ALMOST COLLIDED

Queen Amelie and Montague Narrowly Avoid Collision During Thick Fog in the Strait

VESSELS PASSED WITHIN NINE FEET

Lookouts Saw Danger Just in Time to Avert Disaster—Queen Amelie Arrived from New York Yesterday

The steamer Queen Amelie of the Houlder line, which reached the outer wharf yesterday morning from New York, was coming up the Strait from Tacoma, when suddenly a whistle was heard close off her starboard side and an instant later those on the bridge saw a big steamer loom out of the fog headed straight toward the Queen Amelie. There was a hurried signal to stop the engines, immediately followed by a bell for full speed, and the Montague, whose officers had seemingly made out the Queen Amelie about the same time, began to sheer, her port side passing within nine feet of the starboard side of the big freighter. Mad the lookout on both vessels had been so efficient the Montague would have crashed into the Queen Amelie's starboard side if midships where some of the engineers and others off watch were sleeping, and the collision would probably have resulted in serious loss of life. However, as one of the officers of the Queen Amelie said, "a miss is as good as a mile. It was certainly a close shave, though."

The Queen Amelie, Capt. McKay, formerly of the Queen Mary and Queen Adelaide, which vessel was one time engaged in the trans-Pacific trade out of Victoria, in his command, left New York on May 6th and called at Rio de Janeiro, Punta Arenas, Corozel, Bahia de Caraquez in Ecuador, where steel for the new Ecuadorian railroad was landed, and Buena Ventura, Colombia. The cargo for Vancouver and Ocean Falls consists of ironwork, hardware and general freight.

For Victoria the steamer has 700 tons of general cargo, mostly steel rails, wire and hardware, including some heavy metals 62 feet in length for the B. C. Electric Railway Co. The cargo for Vancouver and Ocean Falls consists of ironwork, hardware and general freight.

PRINCE GEORGE IS BACK FROM STEWART

Brought News of Narrow Escape of Prospectors Off the West Coast of Queen Charlotte Islands.

Bringing 120 passengers from Stewart and Prince Rupert the steamer Prince George, Capt. Saunders, of the G. T. P., reached port yesterday morning. Among the passengers was Mr. John Stewart of Stewart, who reports that a find of five feet of solid ore has been made in No. 4 ledge of the Stewart mine, which is proving richer than anticipated. Mr. Elmdorf, manager of the Portland Canal mine, is completing an examination of this mine and was greatly impressed. Business is improving daily at Stewart.

Mr. Justice Gallier returned from a visit to the Skeena district. He said the Skeena scenery is in a class by itself, and most beautiful. Justice Gallier traveled to a point eight miles beyond Hazelton. He says that it there enjoys a fine climate and that the mineral wealth seems undoubtedly great.

The steamer will sail for the north again this morning. Captained from a rowboat off the west coast of Graham Island, Harry Edenshaw and son, Matthew Youngman and Austin Brown, of Masset had a hard fight for life, according to advices brought by the Prince George. The party arrived from a land staking trip at Prince Rupert shortly before the G. T. P. liner sailed. They went in Edenshaw's launch to stake some oil fields for a syndicate of local business men. After being in the woods for five days they camped on Frederick Island. Before leaving they decided to go back and stake four more claims on Big River.

When in a row boat four hundred yards from the shore they saw an immense wave coming to them and curling over. When it struck the boat it threw the four men clean out some distance away in the water. There was about forty feet of water there, and only Edenshaw could swim, while all were clad in gum boots and slickers. Fortunately the next wave threw the boat towards them, and the men clutched her, trying by climbing on her to get her righted.

Six times the boat rolled over and over, and the men exhausted with the cold and their struggles, were about to give up the fight when Edenshaw and Brown being washed under the boat managed to clasp her, one at each side, keeping her balanced until she floated ashore. Had it not been that the tide was coming in they would have been lost.

The men lost all their effects, and were much bruised with being knocked against the rocks on the shore. Their watches are all stopped at the time of the accident at ten minutes to four. Owing to their exhausted state they decided to leave the last four claims for someone else to find.

EFFORTS TO RESCUE SEAMAN WITHOUT AVAIL

Joseph Hallerhan Fell From Vado's White Steamer Was at Prince Rupert Wharf.

The steamer Vado of the Boscowitz steamship company is expected in port this morning from northern B. C. ports. When at Prince Rupert a seaman, Joseph Hallerhan, was drowned from the Vado. Details of the accident were received by the steamer Prince George yesterday. The Prince Rupert Empire says:

"Some time after midnight the deceased fell from the side and was seen by the quartermaster. Nothing being wrong when a splash was heard. The bed occupied by Hallerhan was empty. Chief of Police Vickers, Constable Merritt and ship's officers soon located the body of Hallerhan under the wharf. He had fallen between the vessel and the wharf, and it is believed that he was trying to leave the steamer with the intention of going up town.

The moment the quartermaster heard the splash, he ran to the side and secured a glimpse of the struggling man. He threw a life saver, raised an alarm, and a boat immediately was lowered, and with Chief Officer Curran, the search commenced. Deceased had evidently gone down at once, and it was fully an hour before the body was located. Dr. Reddie pronounced the man dead. The latter was a native of Trepansey, Newfoundland, and had only been on the Pacific coast about three months. He was 33 years of age.

WIRELESS WARNING OF A TYPHOON

Chicago Maru Enabled to Elude Centre of Storm—Notified by Wireless of Empress Disaster

The value of wireless telegraphy was demonstrated on the steamer Chicago Maru of the Osaka Shosen Kaisha, which reached the outer wharf yesterday morning with 162 passengers and a light cargo, of a little over a thousand tons. When the Chicago Maru was a few hours out from Yokohama on July 25th a typhoon blew from the eastward causing great damage ashore and afloat, over 250 lives being lost in the vicinity of Tokyo, and the operator at Ojichichi station sent a wireless message to operator Kanaya of the Chicago Maru notifying him that the typhoon was following the Chicago Maru. Capt. Goto diverted the course of his steamer on receipt of the message and escaped the main force of the storm, the steamer experiencing only the heavy sea on the fringe of the typhoon. The typhoon resulted in many vessels being wrecked, fishing craft being the greatest sufferers and in the Bessaki district of Tokyo a tidal wave swept a tea house off its foundation and 33 people who were in the place were killed.

Two days later the Chicago Maru was informed by wireless from Japan of the wreck of the C. P. R. liner Empress of China off Cape Noliema on July 26th. The sea was heavy, following the typhoon of the previous day, and thick fog prevailed. The operator at Ojichichi stated the 12 Chinese distress signals from the liner and notified the bureau of communications with the result that the cruisers Aso and Soya were hurried from Yokosuka to the scene. A foreign steamer, the name of which the operator could not recall, was also at the scene. No one was injured during the rescue of those on board, all of whom were landed safely at Noliema and Shirahama, from where they were taken to Yokohama.

Incoming Chinese

There were eight Europeans on the Chicago Maru. E. K. Langden of Manila, G. T. Herrman of Hongkong, and C. W. Lonsdale of Yokohama, landed here. For Tacoma there was M. A. and B. S. Boretto and J. Boskollo, from Manila in the first class and S. Dutton and K. Gardes, the latter a Frenchman from Nagasaki, in the third class. At Victoria 12 Chinese distress signals. Twelve Japanese left the steamer here. The cargo landed here totaled 31 tons, including fishing nets, furniture, Chinese wine, sake, rice and canned goods. For Seattle there were 32 tons and 342 tons of overland goods. The overland freight included 2949 rolls of matting, 14,010 cases of tea, 1348 cases of porcelain, 495 cases of narcissus bulbs, 539 cases of lily bulbs, 164 cases of cigars.

The steamer made a fast trip from Yokohama, but ran into thick fog off the Vancouver Island coast. She was off the entrance to the Strait early on Tuesday morning and was expected to reach port before noon, but Capt. Goto decided to drop anchor at Switzure bank and await the disappearance of the fog. The result was a loss of 24 hours' time. After discharging her cargo here the steamer proceeded to Seattle at noon.

She has a shipment of 938 bales of silk, valued at over half a million dollars and this will be placed on a waiting silk train and hurried eastward over the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad en route to New York.

Arrivals by the Chicago Maru report that property is booming at Hongkong, which a few weeks ago could have been had for $19,000, is said to have changed hands at $29,000. Property all round is on the rise, due to the influx of Chinese from Canton.

Russians Taken by Chinese

According to advices brought by the Chicago Maru, the Hoochi of Tokyo reports that forty Russian spies have been arrested by Chinese soldiers while engaged in making a topographic survey of the III district. The Hoochi says among the effects of the captives are maps prepared in view of a Russian invasion and names of Chinese mercenaries in the Russian pay.

A Harbin despatch to the Nichi Nichi of other complications between China and Russia owing to publication at Peking of reports by the Chinese government alleging that Russia is supplying arms and financing mounted brigades. The Russian minister made an angry denial and stated that the reports probably arose over the flight of the brigand leader, Tao Shih Tang, into Siberia.

SEIZURE OF THE SCHOONER KOFUJI MARU

Japanese Sealers Endeavored to Get Sealskins Away in Small Boat When Manjuria Fires on Vessel.

Details of the seizure of the Japanese sealing schooner Kofuji Maru by the Russian patrol cruiser Manjuria off the coast of Alaska were received here yesterday. The Japanese sealers endeavored to elude capture in a mist by flight after placing the sealskins in a rowboat and rowing away. The Manjuria opened fire on the schooner and she dove to, when a boat with an armed party from the Man-juria went alongside and seized the vessel. The Japanese claimed they were 11 miles from land, and the Russians that the schooner was but two miles off the rocky. The Japanese complain indignantly regarding the manner of searching the schooner, stating that the Russians ransacked the vessel and looted the belongings of the crew, and finally tore down the Japanese flag. The Kofuji Maru was taken to Petropavlovsk, where the captain imprisoned, the crew being released.

The Tokyo Asahi publishes a lengthy account of the seizure furnished by the returned Japanese sealers. The Tokyo paper says:

"It was on February 11 that our vessel the Kofuji Maru left Gogo island, Iyo province where she is registered, with a boom of guns on board in honor of the departure. The weather having been very rough the Kurile islands and elements so thick and fast, our voyage experienced a great deal of danger. We had only one calm day near K & I (?) island toward the middle of May, when we were able to catch five seals. This has won the seeds of our present trouble.

"About two weeks later, the schooner was sailing in Russian seas. At first, it was our intention to go sailing into the Behring Sea, beyond the Aleutian archipelago. The weather, however, not permitting, together with the fact that the season was too early, our crew had to live away from one month at sea, until we set sail at last for the Behring straits toward the end of June. As the schooner was ploughing the sea about twelve miles off the Behring island, we saw a faint column of smoke above the horizon and knew that a steam vessel was coming our way. As the distance grew less, we made it out to be a Russian warship. To tell the truth, it gave us some surprise and consternation, because Russian warships take invariably in charge all schooners, then if they find seal skins aboard, do not stop to question whether they caught the animals on the high seas or not. There was no other course for us but try to escape from this Russian man-of-war, and yet in point of speed a schooner is no match for a steam-propelled ship. Almost in no time, the pursuing warship was close in our wake. This made us stop away our seal skins in all haste and have it row out of sight of the Russians, who, however, detected our scheme and fired a gun to stop the Kofuji Maru. The watch then showed that it was 5.30 in morning.

"A boat, manned by a number of Russian officers and men, was soon alongside our schooner. In face of the protests from our captain, who is now illegally detained in prison at Vladivostok, they forced their entrance into the Kofuji and ransacked her. Their manner of searching was worthy of pirates, rather than those who of a civilized nation. They carried away not only the ship's books and wares, but the private belongings of the crew also, and lastly took down the Japanese flag which was hoisted at the masthead, in spite of our bitter protest. Next moment, this little vessel of ours was surrounded by the Russian cruiser and proceeded to Petropavlovsk.

"Our captain was at the height of indignation and demanded an explanation why a Japanese ship, which was sailing on the high seas under the Japanese flag was arrested by a Russian naval ship. To this the captain of the cruiser gave a most remarkable answer: 'My ship,' declared he, 'is armed to the teeth and ready to strike a blow, if you are unobservant of my command. The governor of Petropavlovsk has ordered me to give two men each schooner that carries aboard the skins of seals, together with a stringent order to arrest all such vessels. If you have anything to say, say it in court at the port.' Resistance under the circumstances was out of consideration. When Petropavlovsk was made on June 28, our crew, twenty strong, were all landed in prison.

"We were arraigned before the Russian authorities, who conducted the investigations along the report made by the warship. It is stated that the boat we lowered was just two miles off Miedni, but such a lie serves only to tickle our sense of mirth. It is but natural that men under a captain of this sort are totally without discipline. The Russian sailors continually asked us favors. They wanted to give them wine or pictures of women and food-stuffs. Under the influence of liquor, they in unison heaped all sorts of vituperation upon their captain and flattered and pretended sympathy with us.

"The official findings were that our captain was guilty and to be held in custody, while the rest of the crew were to be liberated. Thus eighteen men were able to return home, while one man who had to act as the captain had to remain a little longer in Vladivostok."

PLAN OF RICHMOND PARK

KEY—Richmond Avenue runs North two blocks to Oak Bay Avenue.

Remember This: Richmond Park is the Only Subdivision Left For Sale Within the City Limits; further, it is in line for all Modern, Sanitary and Civic Improvements.

Richmond Park From A Home Standpoint

Taking Richmond Park from a home standpoint, we contend that this subdivision offers more attractions, to the man who buys to build, than any subdivision on the market in Victoria.

Richmond Park has the advantage of being within the city limits, and of being surrounded by the best homes in Victoria's best residential district. The holding of this property after surrounding property had been sold accounts for its present unique position.

The fact that Richmond Park has been so long withheld from the market greatly increases the speculative value of these lots, and for the man who buys to build, gives the advantage of being surrounded by the best residential district in Victoria.

Apart from the surroundings of these lots is the question of improvements, so important to the man who buys to build. The person who buys in Richmond Park is assured of every modern convenience. Sewers are already on two streets, and will be laid on others as required by home builders. Water will also be piped to the property as needed.

Streets are already being graded and will be rushed to a speedy completion. The Oak Bay car service assures an easy and efficient access to down town.

Another question usually asked by the prospective home-builder is "What class of houses will be built on the property?" In answer to this we would say that there is a building restriction of from $2,000 to $4,000 on the property. This restriction places no great hardship on anyone, yet it means the right kind of environment, and will tend to enhance values as soon as improvements commence.

Already several homes are contemplated and there is no doubt of many more being built in the near future.

If you contemplate building a home it will be to your advantage to see Richmond Park.
